

IIM Rohtak signs MoU with CRPF to equips officers with managerial competence

Indian Institute of Management, Rohtak has entered into a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) for certificate program for its officers on Thursday, 24th May 2018. The MoU was signed by Prof. Dheeraj Sharma, Director, IIM Rohtak and Mr. Rajeev Rai Bhatnagar, Director General, CRPF.

IIM Rohtak will conduct 6-month Certificate Program in Business Management (CPBM) with an aim to impart managerial decision-making skills to the trainee officers of CRPF.

Prof. Dheeraj Sharma, Director, IIM Rohtak said, “The program is designed to offer the CRPF officers with better understanding and appreciation of latest management concepts, tools, and models particularly in the domain of Human Resources, Logistics Management, Perception and Media Management, Information Systems, and Financial Management among others.”

CRPF Director General, Mr. Rajeev Rai Bhatnagar said that this is the beginning of the synergistic relationship between IIM Rohtak and CRPF.

This course will be conducted for the directly recruited gazetted officers of CRPF.
